Dear Mr. Jones,

Thank you for your kind invitation to Secretary Zinke. He greatly appreciate you thinking of him. Unfortunately, the Secretary has a prior commitment and will not be in DC on this date. Please let me know if you'd like me to check on the Deputy Secretary's availability.

Thank you for your time and understanding.

Best,
Leila

Natalie, thank you so much!

Leila,

I hope this message finds all well with you. I wanted to reach out regarding an event in DC at the Lincoln Memorial on August 27 from 7-8pm: the 2018 Presidential Sites Summit. Secretary Zinke was incredibly helpful earlier this year when we were looking to secure the Memorial as the venue for this event and we would be honored if he was able to say a few words of welcome to kick off the Summit. I know the Secretary has an extremely busy schedule, but if he is available for a DC event on the 27th, we would like to send a formal letter with more details about the Summit and the event on 8/27. I would be extremely grateful for any guidance you could provide in getting this request to Secretary Zinke!

All the Best,

Keith

Dear Ms. Davis,

My boss, Stewart McLaurin, would like to send Secretary Zinke a letter regarding the 2018 Presidential Sites Summit and the possibility of the Secretary having a role in our opening ceremony at the Lincoln Memorial on August 27, 2018. In the past, we have sent correspondence between Stewart and Secretary Zinke to Rusty Roddy, but we understand Rusty is no longer with the Secretary's office. Would it be possible for you to share the best way for us to get our request to the Secretary? Thank you.

All the Best,

Keith
